Selection of men from among the non-gazetted staff of the Mysore Excise Dept. This seems to have been dealt with in the S.R. Branch previously. But, however the main point for consideration is about the presence of the Observer on behalf of this Govt on the Ad hoc Committee at the time of selection.

4) As was done in the case of the I.P. Dept, Sri K. Subba Rao, the present Excise Comm^r may perhaps be appointed as a "nominee" of this Govt in place of the Chief Secretary and the fact intimated to the Fin^y of Finance, States Ministry, and Collector of Central Excise, Hyderabad.
